May 23rd, 2020 - and there is of course Hedayat's fascination with India. He studied Middle Persian in Bombay where he apparently penned the Blind Owl in the core myth of the narrative: the chilling trial by cobra which the half-Indian narrator's Hindu dancer mother Bugam Dasi, the novel's only named character, initiates, igniting the whole nightmare premise of the story." Sadeq Hedayat: Forbidden Voice of Iranian Literature a r

April 1st, 2020 - Hedayat was born around the time of the Persian Constitutional Revolution 1905-1907 which opened the gate to the modern era in Persian/Iranian social, political, and cultural life. The revolution led to the establishment of the first Persian parliament, the first Persian constitution 1906, and the formation of a new social and political order.'
